25X1 4. [ ] In a chance encounter, Senator Margaret Chase Smith said she would appreciate an Agency situation briefing in the near future and would be in touch with us.

25X1 5. [ ] During a brief conversation, Senator J. W. Fulbright commented [ ] that in the current hearings on Southeast Asia he was "learning a lot of things he never knew before" including the fact that "you folks seem to be doing the work of the Lord out there."

25X1 6. [ ] George Murphy, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, asked whether in view of the unavailability of Senator Pastore on Tuesday, 3 March, the Director's appearance could be put over until Wednesday, 4 March at 10:00 a.m. I said I would check with the Director and let him know.

25X1 7. [ ] Met with Frank Slatinshek, House Armed Services Committee staff, whom I briefed on the Middle East situation, developments in Laos, and recent Soviet missile tests.

Slatinshek asked some questions about what the Soviets, Japanese and Chinese Communists were doing in the field of using high-voltage electronic microscopes in the development of micro-miniaturized computers. He said he had been told recently by Dr. Fernandez Moran of the Fermi Institute at the University of Chicago, that the Soviets, Japanese and ChiComs were working intensively in this connection, using a powerful microscope "in reverse" to develop micro-miniaturized computer circuits and that this technology might be important in weapons application. Slatinshek was concerned that this might result in a major breakthrough in weaponry, particularly with regard to the ABM. I said I would consult with the experts and report back.

6. [redacted] In response to his request that we provide a briefing on the Soviet and Chinese missile threats for Senators Cooper and Percy and staff which Bill Miller and Scott Cohen would also attend, I advised Scott Cohen, on the staff of Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.), that the Director had indicated he would be glad to have the two Senators briefed alone excluding the staff members. I told Cohen that, as I had expected yesterday, the Director wants to limit extremely sensitive briefings of this sort to Senators only. I also indicated that the Director had talked at some length with Senator Cooper about this problem and Cohen did not press the matter further. I told him if he wished to schedule the briefing for the Senators alone to let me know.

7. [redacted] Left with Bill Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, the figures which Bill Nelson had used in his briefing of Preston and Woodruff on Laos last week.

[ ] Personnel Security Division, I talked to Miss Miasaki, personal up to Representative Matsunaga's call of last evening. I told her that Representative Matsunaga's return to the city and talk to him. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

3. [ ] [ ] called to advise that two members of the staff of Senator Edward Kennedy's (D., Mass.) Subcommittee on Refugees and Escapees (Messrs. Wenk and Oliva) were in touch with him last week. The Senator and his staff have been in the Miami area looking at the Cuban refugee situation. [ ] said that the Subcommittee staff had raised questions with him on matters such as political prisoners in Cuba, the sugar crop, etc. [ ] explained to the staff that questions of this sort were outside of his area and should be directed to the Legislative Counsel in Washington if an Agency response
